a) Proposal for an “IGF Programme Framework” - review updated document

Following on from the review period on the Proposal for an IGF Programme Framework , a brief summary was provided by the Chair focusing on the ongoing work to determine the appropriate platform in order to share the work more broadly with the Community.

b) Option Paper on Methodologies for the Development of Written IGF Outputs

c) Strengthening Cooperation within the Context of the IGF: A Roadmap for 2018

The group reviewed the goals and present status of these two pilots. The subsequent discussion stressed that in order to advance these proposed pilots, we need to produce Executive Summaries, explaining the goals, opportunities, proposed approach, etc. More specific steps and expectations need to follow very shortly thereafter.

Missions Publiques: Finally, under this agenda item the representative from Missions Publiques provided an update on their activities on involving citizens in global governance issues. They are currently focused on a global deliberative process to get an informed opinion from across the world on an Internet Governance issue (to be determined) with a view to showcasing their activities at the Paris Peace Forum and at IGF 2018 and IGF 2019. These deliberative processes are of interest to the IGF as a vehicle for broader and expanded informed engagement in key Internet Governance issues. Missions Publiques is interested in working with the IGF on the two pilots discussed above. Their current pilots were reviewed, specifically a pilot they are running in Italy (and a number of other countries).

3 - Discussion on engaging MAG, IGF community, Intersessional activities, and NRIs in the development of a multi-year strategic work programme.

- a) discussion on possible poll based on the discussion at the last meeting

The group discussed a proposal that had been sent by a WG member focused on how best to engage more broadly across the intersessional activities.

It was suggested that a small drafting group work on a more concrete proposal for how the MAG and the IGF community could advance a multi-year strategic work programme based on some additional comments that had been shared on the mailing list. The drafting group would come back to this WG for review.

It was further suggested that a poll of the IGF community could be helpful and the drafting team would evaluate this possibility.

4 - Next steps/future agenda items

The importance of getting more concrete proposals out ASAP for all the items above was again stressed.

Future meetings:

28 August 2018 — 1500 - 1600 UTC

A doodle poll will be sent to extend the meeting calendar,
